CHELMSFORD HC BEER FESTIVAL 2013 ROUND UP!

Another brilliantly organised beer festival by Nigel King and his helpers, well done all! Despite the snowy conditions and the lack of hockey at the weekend club members and their friends spent the Saturday evening tasting beers and ciders whilst listening to Deryck and his excellent band play...a few of us even had a cheeky little dance, that includes Tufty who thought he had a sneaky little boogie but was spotted by his wife! Unfortunately the festival didn't see the same numbers turn up as in the past which may have something to do with the weather, a positive spin on this is that there is still (as of 5pm on Sunday but who knows how much the Evergreens will drink this week!) a drop of all the beers and ciders left so if you couldn't make it last weekend please make every effort this Saturday.

The club & bar will be open from 2pm onwards this Saturday
EVEN IF THERE IS NO HOCKEY!!

Food of some sort will be organised on the evening and games in the form of darts, pool and 3 man - played with special brew of 7.3% cider and "Heavenly Matter" - have been suggested by our President (showing the kid that he still is)! Obviously these are not compulsory but can make for quite entertaining spectating!

All club members should try to pop in at some point, a little reminder that FUNDS RAISED FROM THE BEER FESTIVAL GO DIRECTLY TO CHC so please come up and support your club. Spread the word amongst your teammates and remember, anyone is welcome so bring along your family and friends.

QUIZ

NIGHT

It's time to get the general knowledge books out with the annual quiz night looming on 2nd February 2013!

£15 per team, Max 8 per team, 8pm start, either sort your team now or just turn up on the night and form your team there. Bring your teammates, partners, friends and family, all are welcome!

Women & Girls

Cricket Players

Old Chelmsfordians Cricket Club has managed to get some funding to run 6 introductory sessions for women and girls who want to start playing cricket.

The sessions will run from the 30th January between 7.15-8.15pm at Moulsham High School and there is no cost to take part, click here for the full poster and contact details.

Fancy being on TV??

A television company called IWC Media are making a really exciting new family entertainment show that asks families to compete against each other in exciting challenges. They're looking for pairs of people who are fun and up for a challenge to audition to take part in the show. They thought people involved in a hockey club would be confident and could make for good characters (maybe you'll be up for a bit of a laugh?). Filming would be for only one day.

If you and your husband/wife/girlfriend/boyfriend/child/sister/brother/best friend etc think you are an unbeatable pair and are ready to fight for your place on the winners' podium then get in touch and we can give you more info. You can call on 020 7013 4367 or email – ellie.gibbs@iwcmmedia.co.uk

Comic Relief Mile

The Chelmsford Comic Relief Mile takes place from 11am on Sunday 17th March in Central Park, Chelmsford. The event is open to people of all ages and abilities with a choice of a 1, 3 or 6 mile run/walk around the paths of the park starting from the area around the Skateboard ramps, adjacent to Parkway.

Fancy dress is positively encouraged!

The entrance fee is £8.00 per person with all proceeds going to Comic Relief.

Further details can be found at www.chelmsford.gov.uk/comicrelief where you can also book online.
