Fixtures @ Chelmer Park

09/11/13 - M1, M3, M5, MEGs, MVs, L1 & L4

10/11/13 - MVs

Our Ladies 2nd XI played Wisbech Town 2s away on Sunday in the 2nd XI Plate with a squad including 3s and 4s players and put in a solid performance to win 1-3, they will face Burnt Ash (Bexley) 2s away in the next round in February.

Good luck to our Men's and Ladies' Vets as they take on Spencer Supervets and Redbridge & Ilford over 35s respectively on Sunday.

Chelmsford Chumps!

After a short break with no newsworthy chump items, we forgot to include this incredible choice of haircut & facial trimming of Andy Bird last week (bet he thought he'd got away with it), he is available for bookings for those wishing to follow this trendsetter!

CLUB SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

A little reminder to all club members:- Please ensure all matters expressed concerning CHC on social media sites remain positive, any negative comments reflect harmfully not only on the individual player but the club as a whole.

The same goes for match reports, which should remain respectful towards both oppositions and umpires.

Any incidents will be carefully investigated and appropriate penalties enforced. Your assistance is appreciated to avoid any adverse publicity for the club or offence to individuals.

Meet the CHC Captains!

This week it's the turn of Evergreens Captain Peter Holleb, read on to find out a bit more...

Nickname?	Holyballs (no idea why?????)
Position played?	Right wing, centre half, right half and wherever there is a gap.
Sporting Idol?	It has to be Fred "The cat" Matthews.
Funniest moment on a hockey pitch?	Fred " the Cat" Matthews on tour in Porto facing a crack Portuguese works team forward whose only shot was head height and in the top right hand corner.
Proudest hockey moment(s)?	Leading out the magnificent Chelmsford Evergreens every Saturday. (I am expecting them all to buy me a pint for that answer)
Which famous person would you most like to have dinner with?	Deryck Breinberg in order to learn from "the Master".
Would you rather be attacked by one horse-sized duck, or fifty duck-sized horses?	I thought that what happens on tour stays on tour. I need to know the name of the Evergreen who broke that rule and for the record, the large duck that attacked me was, in fact, a Mallard called Fifi. (who continues to send me a birthday card every year). By the way, she only attacked me because I complained about the size of her bill! (Ho, ho!)
